91% are not missing out on learning, lessons are well planned of good quality, enjoyable, and you like having your child's teacher deliver to them. However, 6% are frustrated because of technical difficulties and 2% do not understand TEAMS .

We did ...

We have set up a Remote Learning page on our website which has guides and videos for the use of TEAMS on different devices to support you. There is also a suggestion form which you can fill in if you require any further support.

You have concerns about your child not engaging in every lesson, completing work in their books.

We did ...

We have set up Class charts with a 'live learning' section which will alert you if your child is not engaging in lessons or not submitting work when requested.

In our new timetable of 50 minute lessons a 10 minute break between lessons, an extended morning break and a longer lunchtime, 86% of you think this is enough time. 11% too much and 3% too little.

We did ...

We have built in a wellbeing Friday on the 5th February- time away from the screen for students and staff.

We will...

Look to build in more independent tasks away from the screen – support teachers in their planning, provide them with a structure and suggestions of independent work.
